

Boonville Weekly Advertiser

24 Apr 1925

12/4

Jas. K. Hampton Died Sunday at Lupus

James K. Hampton passed away Sunday morning, at 7:30 o'clock, at his home near Lupus, the day being his seventy-fourth birthday anniversary.

Funeral services were held from the Splice Creek Church Monday afternoon, conducted by C. B. Swinney. Burial was in Splice Creek cemetery. ✓

Mr. Hampton and his wife, nee Miss Sallie Smith, had recently moved from north of Clarksburg to a place 3 miles northwest of Lupus to be near their only son, M. P. Hampton, of Lupus. The deceased was a son of Job Hampton, I, a pioneer settler of the Lupus community, and he was born and reared on the farm now owned by his nephew, Job Hampton, II.

Mr. Hampton is survived by the above mentioned son and one daughter, Mrs. Frank McBride, of Kansas City, ten grandchildren and nine greatgrandchildren. He also leaves to mourn his passing five brothers, Alex Hampton, of near Jamestown; Jesse Hampton, Sedalia; Richard Hampton, Ionia; Sidney Hampton, Kansas City; and Lilburn Hampton, of Lincoln.