

Marshall Daily News

11 June 1925

3/5+6

Gilliam - Good Hope column

Mrs. Joe Cobb and son, Orvil visited Friday with Mrs. Cobb's mother, Mrs. R. B. Gauldin who has recovered from her recent illness, she being able Sunday to attend services at the Good Hope church.

Mr. D. E. McCormick and family, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Rhoades and Mr. E. E. Rhoades, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Gauldin attended the funeral of Mr. Daniel Huff who died in Kansas City at his residence. The remains were brought to Gilliam Monday on the noon train and taken immediately to the Gilliam cemetery where a short funeral service was conducted by Rev. Settle of the Slater Baptist church. Mr. Huff was born and reared in the Good Hope neighborhood and was one of a family of eleven children, all of which has preceded him in death with the other exception of two sisters, Mrs. R. B. Gault-in of our neighborhood and Mrs. Bettie Davis of Montana and one brother, Mr. C. P. Huff of Gilliam. Mr. Huff has been a resident of Kansas City the past thirty years and leaves a wife and one son.