FOUND DEAD IN BED

J. W. Rennison, Pilot Grove, had been in poor health.
J. W. Rennison was found dead in bed Saturday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Leonia Sedgwick, Pilot Grove, where he had made his home the past four years. He had been in poor health for several years and his suffering the past few months had been at times intense.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock from the family residence conducted by Rev. S. P. Cayton, pastor of the Methodist church. Interment was in the city cemetery.

James Winfield Rennison was born August 18, 1851, near Prairie Lick and spent his entire life in Cooper county. At the age of 15 he joined the Baptist church and was a faithful and devoted member. He was married to Miss Elizabeth Rennison in 1877, and to this union thirteen children were born, seven boys and six girls, four of whom are living: Edgar, Gooch Mill; Mrs. Myrtle Roberts, Sedalia; Mrs. Margaret Mann, California; and Mrs. Leonia Sedgwick, Pilot Grove. His wife died eighteen years ago. He also leaves 16 grandchildren.

MARRIED LAST THURSDAY

Clarence Cole and Miss Pauline Palmer. — To Reside Near Mt. Nebo.

Miss Pauline Palmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Palmer, seven miles northeast of Ottavilla, and Clarence Cole, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Cole, of near Mt. Nebo, were married last Thursday evening by Rev. Ralph Manker, pastor of the Ottavilla Baptist church, at the parsonage. The immediate families of both bride and groom witnessed the ceremony.

Following the ceremony, the wedding party went to the home of the bride's parents, where a wedding dinner was served. Mr. and Mrs. Cole are now at home to their friends on a farm near Mt. Nebo. Mrs. Cole has been a successful teacher in the Ottavilla school and is an accomplished young woman of fine character, while the groom is a successful young farmer of sterling worth.

MARRIED IN LEXINGTON

Bernard Gillespie, Formerly of Blackwater, and Mary Wilson

Wed Sunday

Bernard Gillespie, youngest son of Mrs. Nannie Gillespie, of Blackwater, and Miss Mary Wilson, of Lexington, were married in Lexington Sunday morning by Rev. Donald, pastor of the Lexington Methodist church. They went to Blackwater to see the groom's mother, immediately following the ceremony, returning to Lexington Monday afternoon. Mr. Gillespie is cashier at the Missouri Pacific Ry. Station in Lexington.

JACK MANGLED FARMER'S HAND

N. A. George, Near Bunceton, Suffered Painful Injuries

N. A. George, well-known farmer living 2 1/2 miles south of Bunceton, suffered painful injuries Friday, when his right hand was mangled by a jack he was handling. The jack became enraged and bit Mr. George's hand without warning. The injured member is healing nicely now.