GERHARDT-BALL WEDDING

Mr. Herman Gerhardt and Miss Ida Ball Married Wednesday
Mr. Herman Gerhardt, of near

Speed and Miss Ida Ball were married Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Ball, one and one-half miles east of Pilot Grove. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Iva Ball, and the groom's best man was Rudolph Stegner. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Louis Turner, and Steve Stitos sang a solo. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Paul Niedermeyer, pastor of the Billingsville Evangelical church. This evening a reception will be given at the home of the bride and groom, one mile north of Speed.

The groom is a member of a well known family of the Speed community and is one of the county's finest young men. He is a successful farmer and stockman. The bride is a graduate of the Pilot Grove high school and later attended the Central Missouri State Teachers' College, at Warrensburg. She has taught two successful terms of school at East Oakland, her home district, and will teach there the coming term. She is an attractive and sensible young woman. The Advertiser joins the many friends of the young couple in wishing them a long and happy married life.

MRS. TAYLOR WOOLERY DIED SUNDAY EVE

PIONEER COOPER COUNTY-WO-MAN PASSES ON

Had Lived Practically Whole Life of
77 Years on Land Entered 116
Years Ago by Forebears

Mrs. Taylor Woolery, 77 years old, died at her home one mile east of Pleasant Green, Monday afternoon, August 9, from heart failure.

Sarah Elizabeth Berry, daughter of the late Finis and Sarah Berry was born in Cooper county, on the homestead upon which she died, September 5, 1849, one hundred and sixteen years after the settling of the Berry family in the country.

On January 9, 1868, she married J. T. Woolery and to the union thus formed were born ten children, nine of whom survive the mother, James F., Miss Belle and W. Blythe Woolery, Mrs. J. N. Blythe, Mrs. Anna Norris, Mrs. J. C. Tavenner, Mrs. H. M. Eckerle, of Pleasant Green, Mrs. Herman Diehl, of Ottorville, and Mrs. Emma Mitzel, of Sedalia. She is also survived by her husband, and one brother, James H. Berry, of Brownsville, Texas, and one sister, Mrs. Malinda C. Wilson, of Pleasant Green. Twenty-six grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Mrs. Woolery was a noble christian character, considerate of her family and friends, and her passing will be keenly felt by her entire community. That her kindness passed even to others is shown in the fact that she not only raised her family of nine children but for the past several years had been a mother to three of her grandchildren.

The funeral services were held at Mt. Zion Church, Tuesday morning, the pastor, Rev. Foley, and two grandsons of the deceased, Ralph Manker and Kenneth Oglesby, conducting the ceremony. In the presence of a large crowd of sorrowing relatives and friends.
