

3 June 1927

10/1+2

ty owned by Frank Varner into that of Mrs. Dora Tallafiero, recently vacated by Mrs. W. W. Palmer.

Ira Page and family have moved from their home in Otterville to the farm known as the James Finley farm, south of Otterville.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Dugan and small daughter, Eunice Irene, of Independence, spent from Saturday until Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Dugan's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Stephens.

Lawrence W. Clay and Marshall Young, of Bunceton, visited friends Sunday in Otterville.

R. J. W. Holman is painting the house on the farm of Frank Diefendorf, north of town.

Mrs. T. G. Lewis and daughter, Catherine, and brother, Hugh Fairfax, of Kansas City, visited in the home of their father, C. P. Fairfax, east of town. Miss Nola Fairfax, who has been spending her vacation the past two weeks with home folks, accompanied them to Kansas City Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Sapp and Orville Sapp, of Ashland, spent Sunday with Mrs. Sapp's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Nunn. Messrs. Sapp returned to Ashland Sunday, Mrs. Sapp remaining for a longer visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Mills and small daughter, Beverley Jean, of Sedalla, visited Mrs. Mills' grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bell, Sunday and Monday.

Mrs. Pearl Halley and family moved to Sedalla the first of the week, to make their home.

At a meeting of the board of education held Wednesday evening, Miss Amy Case was elected primary teacher, and Franklin Cregan, of near Sedalla, teacher of the Cline school, west of town. This leaves only one vacancy in the Otterville school faculty, that of high school principal.

Eugene Case is spending his vacation with his father, H. D. Case. After attending C. M. S. T. C. the summer term, when he will receive his B. S. in Education, he will go to Elvins to teach in the high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bryan, of Kansas City, visited relatives in Otterville the first of the week.

Miss Agnes Gentry has returned from a several days' visit with her father, S. H. Gentry, and sister, Mrs. W. S. Arnold, at Sedalla.

W. H. Snyder has had new roofing placed on his home in Otterville.

Mrs. Ophelia Cline and daughter, Miss Lena, will leave the last of the week for a several days' visit in the home of relatives at Carthage. They will also, visit other points of interest in south Missouri.

A number of the students of the Martha-Letts high school, at Sedalla, who were students of Miss Mildred Bente, enjoyed a picnic Tuesday at the Lamino River bridge, north of Otterville. Miss Bente was the chaperone. Jimmy McNeil, son of Dr. and Mrs. Charles McNeil, of Sedalla, and friend, Tommy Jenkins, came the last of the week to Otterville to spend the vacation with Master McNeil's aunts, Misses Maggie and Lula McNeil.

McNeil

Case

Case