Preceding the ceremony Lawrence White sang "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. White, who also played the wedding march. The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Robt. Parker Harris, as matron of honor, and Mr. Nelson's brother, Ernest Nelson, served him as groomsmen. The bride wore a gown of white silk crepe over a flesh slip of satin and rose-point lace with Venetian medallions, and large white hat. Mrs. Harris was gowned in white silk crepe with large pink hat. Each wore corsage bouquets of roses and ferns.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Nelson, south of Bunce-ton; and is a young man of sterling qualities of character. He was educated in the Boonville high school and is well known here. The bride is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Smith. She is a voice student of Miss Bertha Jaeger and has appeared in recitals here. She has also studied under a noted Norwegian instructor in Lacrosse, Wis., as well as in St. Louis. She is a member of the Christian church choir, and often appears as a soloist.

Mr. Nelson and his bride will begin married life on a farm eight miles southeast of Boonville.

Wedding guests from a distance were Mrs. W. J. Harris and daughters, Misses Helen and Sara, of Lacrosse, Wis.
