OTTERVILLE

(Mrs Jennie Lee Starkes)

Clovia Marshall and John Summernhauser, of Kansas City, spent the week-end in the home of Mrs. Marshall's aunt, Mrs. A. N. Howlett.

Mrs. Pete Zubsteg returned Sunday from a few days' visit with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rothgeb, at Seward.

Misses Margaret and Mildred Tucker, of Columbus, were guests Saturday and Sunday of Miss Gladys Garland.

Cluadh Hupp, of Louisville, Ky., made a short visit with relatives and friends in Otterville the last of the week. He was enroute home from a two-weeks vacation spent with his mother, Mrs. Lenna Hupp and aunt, Mrs. Nellie Neal and Mrs. Joe Spencer at Raton, N. M.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Eubank, of Kansas City, visited Otterville, spent Sunday with Mrs. Eubank's and Mr. Favorite's mother, Mrs. Lydia Favorite, and sister, Mrs. O. Spillers.

Mrs. Roy Reich and small daughters, Jane and Donna, of Nelson, came Sunday for several days' visit with Mrs. T. R. Crammer and other friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunter Cline of Sedalia, spent Sunday in the home of Mr. Cline's mother, Mrs. Ophelia Cline.

Miss Glendola Gorman has recently been employed to teach in the public schools at Maryville, Kansas, for the coming school year.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Todd, of Fort Smith, Ark., were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Everett.

Mrs. C. A. Evans returned Friday from Fayetteville, after spending a week there with her mother, Mrs. Henry Runsaick.

James Stephens, of Chanmish, was a visitor Sunday and Monday in the home of his brother, Lewis Stephens.

Mrs. Elma Ferguson, of Columbia, was a business visitor in Otterville during the week-end.

Mrs. S. L. W. visited from Wednesday until Saturday with her daughter, Mrs. Minnie Stubblesfield, at Holdenville.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Moon and Mr. and Mrs. N. McDonald of Kansas City, and Mrs. Glenn Aberlint and small son, Charles Edwin, of Los Angeles, Calif., were guests Sunday of Mrs. Dora Talafaro.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Williams, of Seattle, Wash., are the parents of a daughter born August 21. The little one, one of the youniest named Barbara Lou. Mrs. Williams will be remembered as Miss Lou Eula Eubank, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Eubank, of Otterville.

Mrs. Ophelia Cline and daughter, Miss Lena Y. Cline, and Mr. T. R. Crammer visited friends in Topeka Friday.

Mr. H. D. Case and daughters, Misses Alma and Amy Case, returned Sunday from a few days' visit to friends in Southern Missouri.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Norman and son, Nelson, spent Sunday with relatives at California.

Friends and neighbors, Allen have received announcement of his marriage to Miss Elizabeth Peck, at Elgin, Ill., August 18. They will make their home in Chicago. Mr. Allen is the son of Mrs. Jessie Allen, of Otterville, and is a graduate of the Otterville high school.

Rev. and Mrs. L. N.Pollock were guests Wednesday of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gibson, at Marshall.

Harry Wyman, of Richards, spent Sunday with his cousin, Miss A. N. Howlett.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Telemann, of California, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Spillers. Mr. and Mrs. Telemann and Mr. and Mrs. Spiller attended the Missouri State Fair Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Everett and Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Starkes attended the funeral of Mrs. Sandle Hockaday, at Slater, Sunday.

Dr. Robt. Howlett and son, Rev. and Mrs. R. G. Howlett, and Mrs. Howard and three children, Robert, Junior, and Georgia, of Richland, came Sunday for several days' visit with Rev. A. N. Howlett. Dr. R. E. Howlett, who has been visiting in the home of his son at Richland, accompanied them to Otterville.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Smith returned Tuesday from a several weeks tour through Colorado, Montana, and the points of Interest in the West.

Miss Gladys Garland had as her house guest from Sunday until Tuesday, Miss Helen Damron, of Siler.

A. N. Howlett and brother, Dr. Robt. Howlett, and Mrs. Howard, and three children, of Richland, motored to Lexington Monday and spent the day.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gunn spent the week-end with Mr. Gunn's brother at Barnett.

The members of the Presbyterian Sunday School enjoyed a fish fry Thursday at the farm of Walter Wear, south of town. There was a good attendance, and all present reported a very good time.

Miss Ethyl Morris and brother, Paul Morris, of Kansas City, are visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ross, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Groves, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Groves, Mr. and Mrs. Jack, left Monday for Union Star, after spending their vacation with relatives. Mr. Groves is superintendent of the schools at Union Star.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ford and Miss Norma May Buse were visitors Sunday in Jefferson City.

Miss Eula Bond, of Kansas City, came Sunday for a few days' visit in the home of Mrs. C. D. Osborne.

Russell Palmer, of near Benton and Britt Bryan and family, of Nelson, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Bryan.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Spillers, of Otterville, spent Wednesday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Richman.

The funeral of Mrs. Sandle Hockaday, former Cooper country school principal, who died at her home in Slater, Thursday, was held at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Sister John Thomas, of Mission, was the chief representative of the church.

L. S. Delilah was ill the first of the week.

Mrs. W. S. Parsons, and Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Parsons and small daughter, Mary Elizabeth, went to Barnett Sunday and attended the marriage of Cecil Parsons, of Verona, and Miss Ruth Elliott, of Barnett.

Duane Shadwick and family; Mrs. Mina Minter and grandson, Duane Minter, motored to Rockport, and were guests Monday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Monroe, of Monroe.

Rev. John F. Flipp, of Marshall, will conduct preaching services at the Presbyterian church Sunday. This will be the last Sunday Rev. Flipp will preach in Otterville, as he plans to enter the Seminary at Philadelphia in the near future.

Mrs. A. E. Palmer and small son, Charles, spent from Thursday until Sunday with relatives in Jefferson City.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Willie, and Misses Flier and Harry Hixon, of Ferguson, were dinner guests Monday of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bledendorf. Mrs. Willie was unwell recently and is not in the best of health.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Coffman, of Windsor, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harmon, of Syracuse, were fishing at the Lamine River, north of Otterville several days last week.

Boonville Advertiser
26 Aug 1927
10/1+2

(Over)