

OTTERVILLE

(Miss Jennie Lee Starke)

Herman Bryan, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Bryan, of Otterville, and Miss Verna Riddle, of Warsaw, were married Friday evening at the home of the bride. After a short visit with Mr. Bryan's parents, at Otterville, they will reside at Valdā, six miles south of Sedalla.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Kidwell, of Bendleton, Ore.; and Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Gunn, of Barnett, were guests Tuesday of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gunn.

Those from Otterville who are attending the Central Missouri State Teachers' College, at Warrensburg are Miss Miriam Brunk, Miss Ruth Henderson, Miss Dorothy Golladay, Miss Gwendolyn Golladay, Miss Jennie Lee Starke, and William Ross.

Miss Lillian Taylor left the first of the week to teach in the Columbia high school.

D. B. Mayfield returned Wednesday from a two weeks visit with his grandmother, Mrs. Cora Cline, at Melissa, Tex.

Thomas Burford, of Columbia, and Milton Gowan, of Mokane, were guests the past week of Mr. Burford's uncle, A. L. Burford.

Miss Bettie Williams and Miss Ruth Lane, of Sullivan, were guests of Miss Edith Berry, the past week.

George Burnett spent the week end with relatives at Smithton.

Mrs. Charles Licklider, of Appleton City, has returned home after a week's visit with her mother, Mrs. Lydia Favorite, who has been critically ill, but at this time is slightly improved.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Tieman, of California, were Sunday guests of Mrs. Tieman's sister, Mrs. J. L. Spillers, and Mr. Spillers.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Michaelis and daughter, Eleanor, and son, Jerry, of Sedalla, visited Mrs. Michaelis' sister, Mrs. J. H. Gunn, and Mr. Gunn, Friday.

Thomas Adams, principal of Otterville high school, spent the week-end at his home in Tipton.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Decker and Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Decker, of near Syracuse, were guests Sunday, of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Bryan. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lyon and small son, Billy, of Marshall, spent the week-end with Mrs. Lyon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Eubank.

Mrs. Frank Varner has returned from a week's visit with her aunt, Mrs. Jennie Washington, of Eldorado.

T. E. Wear and family motored to Appleton City Sunday and visited Mr. Wear's aunt, Mrs. Mack McMillan.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter West entertained the following at dinner Sunday, honoring the seventy-ninth birthday of Mr. West's mother, Mrs. Mary West: Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Leach, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Quint, and daughter, Bettie; and Mr. and Mrs. George West, and daughter.

Case

At a recent meeting of the board of education of the Otterville schools, on account of the crowded conditions in the first, second and third grades, taught by Miss Amy Case, and the fourth, fifth and sixth grades, taught by Miss Lottie Gentry, it was deemed advisable to have an additional teacher, and Miss Alma Case was employed to teach the third and fourth grades.

John Henry Bente went to Chillicothe Sunday, to enter Chillicothe Business College.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunter Cline, of Sedalla, visited Mr. Cline's mother, Mrs. Ophelia Cline, Sunday.

Miss Mildred Bente went to Sedalla Sunday, and has entered her work as teacher in the Martha-Letts high school.

Miss Edith Berry will go to Sullivan, Saturday, where she is employed as grade teacher in the schools.

John P. Dunham, who does general house moving, was in Sedalla the first of the week, razing a residence.

Miss Earline and Miss Bernice Roesler, five miles east of Otterville, are staying with Miss Margaret Yancey and attending Otterville high school.

W. A. Reed has begun building a barn on his farm, three miles north of Otterville.

Charles Leach, manager of the Farmers Elevator, attended a convention of the Purina Feed Company at St. Louis, the first of the week.

Miss Martha Williams, of Warrensburg, spent Sunday and Monday with her niece, Mrs. Walter Williams, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Everett.

L. S. DeHaven spent the week end with D. M. Hotsenpiller and daughter, Miss Nora.

A number of relatives and friends of Mrs. Anna Ross, bringing baskets of good things for dinner, surprised her Sunday, the occasion being in celebration of her eightieth birthday. Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Ed Morris, Versailles; Mr. and Mrs. Kintley Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Morris and small daughter, Miss Ella Wagenecht, Miss Docia Ross, Miss Sadie Homan, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Homan, Mr. and Mrs. Goldner Lengen and Mr. and Mrs. Lyle, of Sedalla.

Miss Cassie Lockett, of Baltimore, Md., who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Sallie Smith, recently donated a number of valuable books to the public school library.

Mrs. J. H. Reardon, of Syracuse, who is ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Irl Hotsenpiller, is receiving treatment from Dr. C. D. Osborne.

Frank Spencer, of Slater, accompanied by a number of friends from that place, was visiting Otterville friends, also camping and fishing on the Lamine, the first of the week.

John Golladay, after spending several weeks at home, returned to Jefferson City Monday, to complete his course at the business college.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Wherley and son, T. Edwin, visited Mr. Wherley's brother, A. A. Wherley, at Sedalla, Sunday.

Mrs. Rudolph Willig and daughter, of St. Louis, spent the week-end in the home of her father-in-law, Lewis Willig.

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Neale were Sunday guests of relatives near Warsaw.

Jack Edward, 4-months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Edwards, died at the home of Mrs. Edward's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Diehl, near Otterville, Sunday morning, after a few days' illness. Funeral services were held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Diehl Tuesday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Ralph Manker, pastor of the Otterville Baptist church. Interment followed in Crown Hill cemetery, Sedalla.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Elbert, recently married, after a visit at Indianapolis, Ind., and returning visit at Louisville, Ky., came Tuesday for a short visit with Mrs. Elbert's mother, Mrs. Ophelia Cline. They will go to Kansas City Wednesday to reside. Mr. Elbert is assistant manager of Liggett's Drugs Co., at 12th and Baltimore.

Bus Henderson returned Saturday from a business trip to Springfield.

Lockett Smith

Over