OTTERTVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Bischoff, of Bunker, are spending the Thanksgiving holidays with Mr. Bischoff's mother, Mrs. Betty Bischoff, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Holman entertained a family dinner yesterday. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Dull and Neilie Glenn; Mr. and Mrs. Ira Page and family; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Holman; Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Monks and daughter, Genevieve; and Miss Clara Jud and Miss Mary Holman.

Mrs. Lona Lucas and Mrs. Chas. Hirt, of Kansas City, Kansas, came Saturday for a visit with their mother, Mrs. Gusta Mason, and their sisters, Mrs. O. L. Homan and Mrs. Edgar Roecker.

Senator and Mrs. J. H. Gunn visited in the home of his brother, H. D. Gunn, of Barnett, Sunday.

Andrew Kamerer, of nearby Syracuse, was a business visitor in Otterville Saturday.

A pie supper was given at Rockland School Thanksgiving evening, and $15 was realized. Miss Delia Dewey, of Otterville, Pilot Grove, is a teacher. A large number of high school pupils of Pilot Grove attended. Col. C. C. Jones, of Pilot Grove, was auctioneer.

W. S. Parsons was a business visitor in Versailles Friday.

Frank Skiles has finished drilling a well on the W. D. Layne farm, in the Soleville neighborhood.

Durward Goode spent several days last week with his uncle, Claude Cordry, and Mrs. Cordry, of Carthage.

Announcement has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Burch, of St. Louis, of the birth of a daughter, November 18. The name Patricia Merle has been given her. Mrs. Burch was present when her marriage, Miss Addie Hoteenplar, of Otterville.

Jim Henderson, of Otterville, and Miss Lenta Hockett, of Sedalia, were married at Sedalia by Judge Leise, the past Wednesday. They will make their home with present parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Henderson, of Otterville.

In the county tournament in Bolivar Tuesday, the Otterville girls and boys' basketball teams each won second place.

Ruby Bishop, Arthur Brodersen, and Victor Young, these players, were the leading scorers of their respective teams. Sebel Mason, Earline and Bruce Roeoker, Loeta Neale, Jessie May Wear, Mabel Bane Case, Earnestine Halley and Helen Dunham were prominent on the boys' team. Members of the committee were Paul Ross, George Barnett, James Earle, Ralph Osvald, Earl Neale, with Thomas Nichols as substitute.

Dr. C. A. Roberts, of the state institution at Marshall, visited in the home of his cousin, Col. W. D. Ross, Thursday.

W. H. Lyon, of the Marshall high school, spent Sunday with Mrs. Lyon and small son, Billie, who are spending several weeks with Mrs. Lyon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Dull.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hankenberger and G. W. Harlan attended the Royal Stock Show at Kansas City, the past week.

Supt. and Mrs. J. D. Dull and children, Joe Delbert and Dorothy Jean, are spending the holidays with Mr. Dull's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Dull, of Kansas City.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Homan entertained the following relatives Sunday: Mrs. Gusta Mason, Mrs. and Mrs. Edgar Roeker and family, and Mrs. Charles Hirt and Mrs. Lona Lucas, of Kansas City, Kansas.

Mrs. Ophelia Cline went Monday to Kansas City Wednesday to spend the holidays with her daughter, Mrs. D. H. Elbert, and Mr. Elbert.

Miss Mabel Cox, teacher of the Otterville High School, is spending her Thanksgiving vacation with relatives in Kansas City.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Evans spent a few days in Kansas City the first of the week.

There were fourteen high school girls initiated on Friday afternoon, as a Scouting troop, and were later given instruction on bandaging by Mrs. L. L. Rice.

A Thanksgiving program was given in the auditorium of the Otterville public school Wednesday morning, in which the different classes were represented.

Mrs. T. M. Wittman, who has been critically ill at the home of her son, W. J. Wittman, shows little improvement. She was taken to St. Mary's Hospital at Sedalia Sunday, for treatment and will probably undergo a surgical operation.

Mrs. Maude Zollinger, of the Flower Dry Goods Co., at Sedalia, spent Sunday at her home in Otterville, concluding her Thanksgiving vacation with Mrs. A. L. Ferguson, of Columbia.

At the regular meeting of the Order of Eastern Star, the past Thursday evening, a social hour was spent after the business session. Delicious refreshments were served by the social committee. Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Fogle and Mrs. Mary A. Fogle, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Norman and son, Nelson, spent Sunday with relatives at California.

Col. J. D. Ross, who is confined to his home on account of a fractured bone in his leg, just above the ankle, is getting along as well as could be expected.

Miss Martha Holman, teacher of Stony Point School, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Holman.

Mrs. Virgil Quint entertained her class of primary pupils of the Baptist Sunday school Friday afternoon, at her home, honoring the fifth birthday of her daughter, Betty. Members of the class are: Nellie Glenn, Clifford Ashcraft, J. D. Hootenplar, Parrie Corbin, Mrs. Oscar Bishop, Charles Snyder, Kenneth and Jewel Schill. Others invited guests were Miss Harry Miller, Miss Norma Mae Bush, Dick Harlan, James Earle, Elta Catherine Oswald and Esther J. Straten. Refreshments were served.

Miss Verda Lopp, of the Otterville high school, spent the week-end with fellow students near Sedalia.

W. A. Mayfield, of Pleasant Green, was a business visitor in Otterville, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Quint and daughter, Alice May, of near Pilot Grove, spent Sunday in the home of their son and brother, Virgil Quint.

Miss Lois and Miss Mild Bente, teachers in Kansas City and Jefferson City schools respectively, are spending the holidays with their mother, Mrs. Mild Bente.

Clyde Nichols, who is attending Westminster College at Fulton, is at the house of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Nichols, for the Thanksgiving holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Fairfax report their daughters, Mrs. T. G. Lewis and Miss Nola Fairfax, of Kansas City, who were recently injured in an automobile accident, to be improving satisfactorily.

Mrs. Sam Wright (colored) a progressive farmer's wife, near Otterville, has a fine flock of 70 Whiteface sheep and gathers from 46 to 47 eggs a day.