MRS. CAMPBELL DIED THURSDAY

Funeral Services for Mother of Mrs. Virgil V. Huff Were Held at 2:30 P. M. Saturday at the Huff Home on E. Yerby.

Mrs. Sarah Margaret Hamilton Campbell died Thursday morning about 7 o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Virgil V. Huff on East Yerby. While Mrs. Campbell has been an invalid for five years, and bedfast for two years, her death came very unexpectedly to Mrs. Huff who has devoted her entire time to the care of her mother since she has been in the home with her.

Mrs. Campbell was born September 10, 1849, near Winchester, Ill., but her parents, Richard Sappington Hamilton and Martha Taylor Hamilton were of southern families. Mr. Hamilton's family was from Louisville, Ky., and Mrs. Hamilton was from Virginia, and they were pioneer settlers in Illinois, where the deceased was born and reared. She was married to Henry Campbell in Illinois, at the Hamilton home near Winchester. They lived on a farm near Winchester for several years, later coming to Saline County, Mo., making their home on a farm near Mt. Leonard. In 1892 the family moved to Marshall, and lived here until the death of Mr. Campbell in 1904, and then Mrs. Campbell went back to Winchester and made her home with her mother at the Hamilton homestead. After the death of her mother, a son, William Campbell, purchased the home and Mrs. Campbell continued to make her home there until the son died five years ago, and then she came to Marshall to make her home with Mrs. Huff.

Mrs. Huff, at the time of her brother's death was in Egypt teaching, and had signed a three year contract, but was able to be released, and came back to make a home for her mother. She has been untiring in her devotion to her. Four children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Campbell. All preceded the mother in death except Mrs. Huff, leaving her the only survivor of her immediate family. Two brothers, W. W. and J. E. Hamilton survive Mrs. Campbell, but on account of their age will not be able to come. Her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Rennah P. Campbell, and seven grand children also survive, and some of the family will come from Illinois to attend the funeral services.

Mrs. Campbell was a member of the Oddell Avenue Presbyterian church. Mrs. Campbell was a sweet white haired mother, who grew old gracefully; very patient during her long sickness; ever thoughtful and considerate of others.
