

John Andrew Wyatt Buried In Mineral Creek Cemetery

Funeral services for John Andrew Wyatt, south of Warrensburg, who died April 12, were held Sunday afternoon, April 14. The Rev. James Mohler conducted the service assisted by the Rev. Mr. Lentz and the Rev. Mr. Sommers. Burial was in Mineral Creek cemetery.

Mr. Wyatt was the son of Aaron and Susan Wyatt. He was born near Jefferson, Ash county, North Carolina, August 17, 1852. In 1866, he, with his parents, moved to Covington, Ohio, and in 1869 they went to Cooper county, Missouri, the trip being made in a covered wagon. They later came to Johnson county where the remainder of his life was spent.

He was married, July 4, 1878 to Maggie J. Rennison, who survives him. To this union were born three sons and three daughters, all of whom survive except one son. These are J. Arthur, of St. John, Kan., Lector, of Leeton, Mrs. Bessie Peters of Warrensburg, Mrs. Alva Miller of Leeton and Mrs. Harrison Freeman of Lovewell, Kan. The following brothers and sisters also survive: Joseph N. of Clinton, Solomon, and Mrs. Matilda Jones, of Leeton, Mrs. Mollie Rose of Calhoun and Mrs. Ellen Allison of Chanute, Kan.

He had been a member of the Brethren church since he was 38 years old.
