

Marshall Weekly Democrat News
13 June 1929, 3/1 & 2

Mrs. Levina Gauldin

Mrs. Levina Gauldin, age 78 years, was found dead in bed, Friday morning about 7:30, by her granddaughter, Mrs. Frances Cobb, at their home in the Good Hope neighborhood. The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock and burial will be made in that cemetery. Mrs. Gauldin was born and reared in the Good Hope neighborhood, and is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Rheubene Cobb, several grandchildren and great-grandchildren, one sister, Mrs. Bettie Davis, North Dakota, and one brother, Peyton Huff of Gilliam. Her husband, Benjamin Gauldin died a year ago May 31.

[From: Marshall Weekly Democrat News, 13 June 1929, 3/1 & 2. From the Slater column]

Mrs. Levina Gauldin, age 78 years, was found dead in bed, Friday morning about 7:30, by her grand daughter Mrs. Frances Cobb, at their home in the Good Hope neighborhood. The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock and burial will be made in that cemetery. Mrs. Gauldin was born and reared in the Good Hope neighborhood, and is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Rheubene Cobb, several grand children and great grand children, one sister, Mrs. Bettie Davis, North Dakota, and one brother, Peyton Huff, of Gilliam. Her husband,

Benjamin Gauldin died a year ago May 31.