

THOMAS WOOLERY, 88

SUFFERS PARALYTIC STROKE

Thomas Woolery of Bunceton, one of the town's oldest citizens, suffered a stroke of paralysis Thursday morning, which affected his right side and throat. Mr. Woolery, who is 88 years old, is slightly improved. With him are Mr. and Mrs. Allen Woolery, Mr. and Mrs.

~~A. Case and Mr. and Mrs. H. ton-of-Kansas-City; Mrs. Charles uer, Boonville; Mrs. Jennie Phillips and Everett Phillip and family Sedalia, Mrs. F. A. Reed and son, Matham, of Pilot Grove; and Miss lle Woolery and Walker Woolery Pleasant Green.~~