

James M. Hurt of Boonville Is Dead

Native Cooper Countian Passed
Away at Home Here Tuesday
Morning

Funeral services for J. M. Hurt, who died Tuesday at his residence at 701 Pendleton Avenue, were held at the home Thursday morning at 10:30 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. T. D. Borders of the Boonville Presbyterian church. Burial was made in Walnut Grove cemetery.

James Marlon Hurt was born April 10, 1853, in the Clark's Fork community, a son of William and Katherine Robinson Hurt. He spent all his life until twelve years ago farming, retiring and coming to Boonville with Mrs. Hurt, who preceded him in death last year.

He is survived by two daughters and a son, Mrs. R. L. Brubaker, Springfield, Ill., Mrs. Speed Hickam, of the Boonville home, and William John Hurt, of southeast of Boonville. He also leaves a brother, William A. Hurt, east of Boonville, and three grandchildren.
