

5 Feb 1932

1/5

Mrs. James Cave of Sedalia Dies

Funeral for Former Cooper County
Woman Held Sunday
Afternoon

Funeral services were held in Sedalia Sunday afternoon for Mrs. James Cave, who before her marriage was Miss Esther Potter, formerly of near Clifton City.

Rev. Greenway of the Baptist church was in charge of the services. Burial was in the Crown Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Cave died at her home in Sedalia, January 25, following an illness of several months.

Those from Clifton City to attend the services included Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Sappington, Mr. and Mrs. Birdstrup and son Charlie, Mrs. C. A. Higdon, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Potter, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Needy, Mrs. Add Johnson, Mrs. H. S. Cox, Mrs. Essie Holmes, Mrs. Inez Craker, and Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Wallace.

Mrs. Cave was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Potter and was born near Clifton City April 21, 1900. On Christmas day in 1918 she was married to James Cave, also a native of Clifton City.

Besides her husband, she is survived by two children, Bernadyne, 12, and Bobby, 7, her father; Mrs. Kansas Potter, her grandmother; and the following brothers and sisters, Clarence of Beaman, George of Detroit, Norman of Kansas City, Mrs. Julia Kell of Peoria, Mrs. May Dugan, Kansas City, Mrs. Mabel Stewart of Beaman, and Fidella of the home.

Cave

Kirk Steele Died At Clarksburg Friday

Kirk Steele, well known Clarksburg resident, died Friday morning at 4 o'clock following a short illness of a cerebral hemorrhage. He was the carrier of Route Two out of Clarksburg, which passed through the Lakota community and had many friends in Cooper county. He covered his route Thursday and was stricken that night at about 10 o'clock.

Mr. Steele was the only son of the late D. K. Steele and wife and was born 53 years ago in Clarksburg. He married Miss Cora Clark of Clarksburg who, with a daughter, Maxine, survives. He also leaves a sister, Miss Grace Steele, of Oklahoma City, Okla., and two half sisters, Mrs. Lida Guyer and Mrs. Sallie Guyer of Oklahoma.

Funeral services were conducted at the Clarksburg Methodist church pastor, the Rev. Hargrove, Bur- of which he was a member, by the lal was made in the Masonic cemetery. The services were largely attended.

Steele

Mrs. Ellen Haley and Frank Garret Wed

Mrs. Ellen Haley of Boonville and Frank M. Garrett of Sedalia were married in Sedalia Saturday afternoon at 2:30 by a justice of the peace. The witnesses were C. J. Tober of Sedalia and Roy Garrett. The couple will make their home on a farm southeast of Sedalia.

Haley
Garrett