

S. S. CASE, VETERAN OF CIVIL WAR, DIES

Funeral of Aged Man to Be Held Tomorrow.

At the age of 85 years, Samuel S. Case, for about 62 years a resident of Hannibal and vicinity, passed away at 6:15 o'clock Sunday evening, in his home, 3107 Market street. He had been ill since Dec. 22.

A native of Wisconsin, Mr. Case was born at Monroe, Jan. 19, 1847. During the Civil war he served with the Union army in Company A., 46th Division of the Wisconsin infantry, and was honorably discharged from service on Sept. 27, 1865, at Nashville, Tenn. Following his discharge from service in 1865, he came to Missouri and settled in Cooper county, where he resided for four years or more, and about 1870, removed to this vicinity. For a number of years, he operated a general store at Hidesburg, later engaging in farming in that vicinity, and then removed to Oakwood, where he lived for several years and then engaged in farming in Marion county for some time. He disposed of his farming interests and located at Oakwood, in the home where he passed away yesterday. Mr. Case was twice married, his first wife being Miss Mary Frances Herring, a member of an old Ralls county family, who passed away March 25, 1922. Two and a half years ago, Mr. Case married Mrs. Emma Peyton, who survives.

He leaves the following children: Mrs. J. E. Millren of Eldon, Mo.; Mrs. L. W. Akerson and Mrs. Frank Cable of Hannibal. Another er daughter, Miss Carrie Edith Case, preceded her father in death, passing away Dec. 8, 1914. Mr. Case is also survived by a brother, John R. Case, of Seattle, Wash.; 11 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Mr. Case was a man of strict integrity, which throughout his years of residence in this vicinity, together with his jovial disposition and exemplary Christian character made for him a wide circle of friends by whom he was highly esteemed. In spite of his advanced years, he was keenly interested in the happenings of the day and kept in touch with the activities of the community in which he lived. He was very active, in spite of his age, until his last illness. Mr. Case was devoted to his home and family and possessed traits of character which made up a strong and upright character, honored by all with whom he came in contact during his more than half a century's residence in this vicinity.

The remains were removed to Schwartz's funeral home, where they may be viewed by friends until 9 o'clock Tuesday morning. Funeral services will be held from the Oakwood Methodist Episcopal church, South, at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, conducted by the Rev. J. P. Sansom, pastor of Prince Avenue Baptist church, assisted by Rev. C. W. Hardon, pastor of Oakwood Methodist church, and the remains will be laid to rest in Hidesburg cemetery.
