

Civil War Veteran of Otterville Dies

David G. Halley of Near Otterville
Served Under General
Price

David G. Halley, a Civil War veteran and a pioneer resident of Cooper County died Saturday, July 2, 1932 at the home of his son, Ernest R. Halley, two miles southeast of Otterville.

Mr. Halley was born July 30, 1844 in Kenna County, West Virginia. He came with his parents to Missouri, early in life, and spent practically all of his life in Cooper County. He joined the Confederate army during the Civil War and was under the command of General Price.

In 1868 he was married to Miss Louisa Sned Hazell, who preceded him in death several years ago. Five children were born to them, only one of which survives, Ernest R. of Otterville. Mr. Halley is also survived by four grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at the home Sunday afternoon, conducted by the Rev. E. Fromm, pastor of the Otterville Baptist church. Burial was made in the Otterville I. O. O. F. cemetery. Pallbearers were: Charles Kuykendoll, A. L. Burford, George Burford, R. J. Byler, E. A. W. Schupp and Lewis Zumsteg.

Among those from a distance to attend the funeral were: Mrs. Pearl Halley, Miss Estelva Halley, Mrs. H. E. Ashbaugh, Kansas City; John, Wm. and Pearl Jeffress, Blackwater; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Combs, Warsaw.