Mrs. Ida Helm Died In Kansas

Burial of Former Blackwater
Woman Made At Nelson Tuesday Afternoon

Helm

Mrs. Ida Chamberlin Helms died at Lawrence, Kans. at home of her daughter, Mrs. Pauline Everhart, Sunday morning. Her husband, Douglas Helms died in Blackwater 16 years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Helms resided here on the portion of the Jim Davis farm known as the Helm place near Blackwater most of their lives. The family grew up here, all attended the Franklin school. They moved to Blackwater shortly before Mr. Helms' death. Mrs. Helms since then has lived with the children.

She was 84 years of age and is survived by the following children: Herbert of Sweet Springs; Mrs. Everhart, Mrs. Martha Thornton, Mrs. Sally Bryant, and John, all of Kansas and another daughter, Mary.

The following men from Blackwater served as pallbearers. S. P. Willson, J. V. Mercereau, Jim Potter, Jim Davis, Mitt Heim, and R. W. Alverson.

The burial was Tuesday afternoon in Nelson Cemetery with a short service at the grave.
