Mrs. Fannie Ritchie
68 Years Old—Dies

Well-Known Resident of Mt. Hermon Neighborhood Passes Away

Mrs. Fannie Carhart Ritchie, aged 68 years, passed away at her home at 11 o’clock Wednesday evening, April 19, following a long illness. She had been ill since last August.

Mrs. Ritchie was born on the old Carhart homestead, 2 miles west of Mt. Hermon on Dec. 11, 1864. She was the oldest daughter of John and Rachel Carhart, a pioneer family of this community. She was united in marriage to Jacob Ritchie in 1882 and to this union were born—two daughters, Mrs. Fred Carhart of the home, Mrs. A. J. Herman of Boonville, and one son, Marvin Ritchie of Sedarah. She leaves the above-named children, also one sister, Mrs. W. T. Jackson of Sedarah, four grandchildren, two great-granddaughters, and two great-grandsons. She united with the Mt. Hermon Baptist church in 1911 and lived a consistent Christian life. The Rev. W. J. Clay of Columbia, her pastor, conducted the service at Mt. Hermon church Friday afternoon at 2:30 o’clock. Burial was in Walnut Grove cemetery. Pallbearers were six nephews—E. B. Moore, Elmer Carhart, Clifford Martin, Clarence Zimmerman, Emmett, Neil, and Robert Jackson. Regardless of the weather and rain, the large crowd and the beautiful flowers expressed in a measure—the esteem in which she was held.

Those attending Mrs. Ritchie’s funeral were—Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Jackson and son, Robert; Mr. and Mrs. Jess Pursley and son; Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Neal and family, Mrs. George Gustav, and daughters, all of Sedarah; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnston and daughter and niece Shirley Johnston of Detroit, Mich.

Mrs. John Robertson
—Died in Kansas City

Well-Known Resident of Mt. Hermon Neighborhood Passes Away

Mrs. John B. Robertson of Kansas City, and a former resident of Arrow Rock, was buried at Arrow Rock cemetery last Wednesday afternoon. Services were conducted at the grave by W. H. Edwards, a friend of the family.

Emma Grider Robertson was born Nov. 7, 1867, at Lisbon, Howard County and died April 17, at her home in Kansas City. She was married at an early age to John B. Robertson, who preceded her in death by several years. To this union eight children were born, two of whom died in infancy, and one, Mrs. J. W. Elder, died several years ago in Slater. The children who survive are Misses Beatrice and Mae Robertson and Jack Robertson of Virginia, Will Robertson of Mexico, Mo., and Mrs. George Gibbons of Chicago. Besides her children she leaves two sisters, nine grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren.

Adolph Grossglauser
Died Thursday Morn

Funeral Services Were Held at Haldiman Chapel Sunday

Adolph Grossglauser, a well-known farmer, southeast of James-town, died suddenly early Thursday morning, April 20, of heart trouble. He had been ailing for several days, but had been confined to his bed only a part of the time.

He was a native of Switzerland, having come to America in his early years, and had lived in the community where he died, ever since. His wife, before her marriage, was Miss Eliza Haldiman. She and five children survive. The children are Charley, of Trenton; Otto, and Mrs. George Gelger of James-town, Mrs. Weaver Scherff of California, Mo., and Miss Elsie, at home.

Funeral services for Mr. Grossglauser were held at the Haldiman Chapel, near his home, and interment was there on Saturday afternoon.
