William Albin died suddenly on Sunday. He was well known resident of the Lakota community, died Sunday while walking to Clarksburg to get his car which was being repaired there. His body was found on the road about half a mile from his home by Charlie Scott of near Pisgah. A coroner's jury rendered a verdict of death due to acute indigestion and heart failure.

Mr. Albin was the son of the late James Wighton Albin. He was born December 4, 1882, on the farm 4 miles north of Clarksburg where he lived practically all of his life and had owned for about 20 years.

He was married on February 4, 1909, to Miss Minnie Elliott, and to this union one daughter, Loretta, who is now Mrs. Wilbur Long of Colorado.
