C. of C. Compiles Industrial Data

Eddie Williams, secretary of the Boonville Chamber of Commerce, announced today that the C. of C. is making plans for a bureau to furnish information on the federal industrial recovery acts.

There is considerable misunderstanding and misinterpretation of the recent federal acts arising and the chamber is anxious to assemble information on these acts and be able to inform the public correctly.

The C. of C. in cooperation with the St. Louis chamber will serve as a consulting bureau to interested firms and individuals.

Data and explanatory information in booklets have been received by the local C. of C. A study is being made of the information. Farm relief, industrial building projects, etc., are included.
