

Boonville Advertiser
20 Oct 1933
6/5

Mrs. Silas Hurt Died Here Tuesday

Wife of Deputy Sheriff Passed
Away After Illness of One Year

Mrs. Silas Hurt died at her home on Pendleton Avenue Tuesday at 5:30 o'clock after an illness of a year.

Della Love Ross, the daughter of Andrew J. and Elizabeth Ross was born on April 12, 1872, in Cass county. At the age of 15 she united with the Baptist church at Providence in Pettis county.

On June 16, 1902, she was united in marriage to Silas Hurt, who is now deputy sheriff of Cooper County. Besides her husband she is survived by one son, Waldo E. Hurt of Yates Center, Kansas, and one sister, Mrs. J. C. Bidstrup, of Lebanon.

Hurt

Mrs. A. C. Duncan Dies In Cleveland

Former Boonville Woman Passes
Away After Illness Of Several Years.

Mrs. A. C. Duncan, formerly Miss Nora Goodman of Boonville died at her home Sunday night at 10 o'clock in Cleveland, Ohio, after an illness of several years.

Miss Nora Goodman was born in Boonville where she made her home for many years. She was a teacher in the Boonville schools. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Goodman. Mr. Goodman preceded his daughter in death.

She was married to A. C. Duncan and they have made their home in Cleveland, Ohio. Mrs. Duncan was a member of the Christian church.

She is survived by her husband, A. C. Duncan, her mother, Mrs. Amelia Goodman of Boonville, two daughters, Elizabeth and Margaret, two brothers, Warren Goodman of Holden, Mo., and Henry Goodman of Boonville and one sister, Mrs. G. F. Boller.

Duncan