Baby Met With Accidental Death

Robert Ellis, the 5-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Grossenbacher of near Kirksville, Mo. met with a tragic death Wednesday, Nov. 15th. While Mrs. Grossenbacher and another baby child had gone to the mail box, the baby who had been left alone on the bed, rolled to the foot of the bed and fell between the bed and mattress, catching his chin over the iron railing and causing death by strangulation.

The funeral was held at the chapel at the Kubl cemetery near Sandy Hook, east of Jamestown Friday and burial was in the cemetery there by the side of the baby's grandfather, Alfred Grossenbacher. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Grossenbacher were former residents of Monteau County, the latter being a daughter of the late Wm. Reimler of Uopus.
