

MT HERMON

(Mabel Martin)

Thanksgiving week was an unusually sad week for this community. First the tragedies of Howard Bryan and wife so closely followed by the death of Mrs. Thurman Carey.

E. B. Moore and Marlon Stegner butchered hogs this week.

There has been quite a few sick in this community. Those who are recovering are: Mrs. Henry Grissum and daughter, Nora Elizebeth, and grandson, Harold, Mr. and Mrs. John Grissum and son, Junior, Clifford Martin, and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Cary.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Hornbeck and daughter, Ida Bell, and Mrs. Fred Custer and son, Lawrence, drove to Kansas City Friday.

Henry Grissum and son, Elwood bought 13 tons of baled hay from Roger Verts of Billingsville and the trucking was done by Fritz Wassmann.

Eugene Miller of Boonville spent Thanksgiving day with his aunt Mrs. Harvey Carey and Mr. Carey.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Moore and daughter, Dorothy, were guests Sunday evening of Mr. Moore's brother, B. L. Moore, and wife.

Albert Miller and sister, Mrs. Raymond Grimes and son of Kansas City were called here by the death of their nephew, Howard Bryan, and wife.
