

17 Apr 1936

Hazell Funeral To Be Held At Baptist Church

Services Will Be Conducted By Rev.
Brodersen at 2:30 -- Burial at Pleasant Hill

Funeral Services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Baptist church for Dade Hazell, 51, who died suddenly at his home on second street yesterday morning. The services will be conducted by Rev. W. C. Brodersen, pastor.

The body will lie in state at the Schwitsky - Stegner funeral home until time for the services tomorrow. Burial will be made in Pleasant Hill cemetery near Pilot Grove.

Mr. Hazell had lived in Boonville for about eight years, having come here from a farm in the Billingsville neighborhood.

[From: Boonville Daily News, Boonville, Missouri, 18 April 1936.]

Dade Hazell, 51, Dies Suddenly At Home Here

Found Dead in Bed This Morning--
Had Suffered From Dropsy for Two Years

Dade Hazell, 51 died suddenly at his home on Second Street this morning. Mr. Hazell, who had been in ill health for some time, was found dead in bed. He had been suffering from dropsy for more than two years.

Funeral arrangements have not been complete. The services will be in charge of Schwitsky-Stenger.

Mr. Hazell had lived in Boonville for about eight years, having come here from a farm in the Billingsville neighborhood.

Surviving are his widow; two sons, Forrest and Woodard, of Boonville; and two brothers, Lester of Atchison, Kans., and Orb Hazell of Pilot Grove.

Mr. Hazell was born July 10, 1884, on a farm seven miles south of Boonville.

[From: Boonville Daily News, Boonville, Missouri, 17 April 1936]