FARMER KILLED BY COLLAPSE OF SHED

Arthur L. Burford, aged about 68, prominent farmer who lived three miles southeast of Otterville, was killed about 3:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon, when a shed in which he was looking after some stock caved in under the weight of the snow, and he was crushed to death.

Mr. Burford has a daughter, Mrs. Roy Snyder, who lives at 1012 East Sixteenth street, this city.

Mr. Burford leaves his widow two daughters, Mrs. Snyder, of this city, and Mrs. Walter Edwards of Otterville; a son, A. Y. Burford of Otterville, and two brothers, James Burford, of Columbia, and A. T. Burford of Otterville.

Funeral arrangements had not been made last night.
