

George Helms Dies At Sedalia Home

Funeral services for George Helms, former resident of the New Lebanon community of Cooper County, were held Monday afternoon at the First Baptist Church in Sedalia. Burial was in Memorial Park Cemetery.

Mr. Helms, 58 years old, died last Friday at his home in Sedalia after an illness of more than a year. He was born near New Lebanon

Oct. 10, 1880, the son of the late James and Anna Helms. On Jan.

31, 1909, he married Maude Woolery, also of Cooper County, who survives. He also leaves the following brothers and sisters: E. W. Helms, Independence, Mo.; H. C. Helms, Victor, Colo.; Mrs. Lewis Lackey, Ridgeway, Colo.; Mrs. Frank Eichelberger, Pilot Grove. Two brothers and one sister preceded him in death.

Mr. Helms was a member of the New Lebanon Presbyterian Church but since living in Sedalia attended the First Baptist church of that city. He formerly worked at the Missouri, Kansas and Texas station as fireman, later with Swift & Co. until his health began to fail. The last few years of his life he was a salesman for the J. R. Watkins Company.

Scott Winders Dies of Heart Disease

Word has been received here of the sudden death April 17 of Scott Winders, former Cooper Countian, at his home in Hollinger, Neb. Heart disease was the cause of death.

Funeral services were held April 20 at Hollinger, with burial in Bethel cemetery.

Lilburn Scott Winders, son of Sam and Dorinda Winders, was born near Boonville Feb. 23, 1877. He married Edith Rush of Hollinger, Neb., Feb. 22, 1911.

For a number of years they made their home on the old Winders homestead eight miles south of Boonville. After selling out here they purchased a home in Hollinger, where Mrs. Winders preceded him in death May 30, 1924. One brother, Paul Winders of Boonville, survives.

Scott Winders was a member of the Mt. Hermon Baptist church of Cooper County, where he served as superintendent of the Sunday school for a number of years before leaving Missouri.