

Walter J. Castle Killed in Crash

Walter J. Castle of Otterville met a sudden, tragic death about midnight Saturday at El Dorado, Ark., as he was enroute home from the state of Louisiana with a truck load of cattle.

Mr. Castle had parked near a filling station at El Dorada and stepped behind his truck to attend to the cattle when an automobile crashed into the truck. Crushed by the impact, he died within a short time.

He was accompanied by J. E. Page, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Page, who was unhurt.

Mr. Castle was born Jan. 26, 1885, on the farm of his parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Castle, four miles north of Sedalia. He married Miss Johanna Immhauser of Sedalia, June 10, 1908, who survives.

He also leaves three children, Walter E. Castle of Hunewell, Kas., Lawrence J. Castle and Miss Gertrude Castle of Otterville; and one sister, Mrs. Pearlle M. Bailey of St. Louis.

The Castle family had lived in the Otterville community for the past seven years.
