

B. F. Albin Services Held at Clarksburg

Funeral services for Benjamin Franklin Albin were held Sept. 12, with a short service at the Albin home in Clarksburg followed by services at the New Zion Presbyterian church north of town, conducted by the Rev. J. S. Laws, Baptist minister. Pallbearers were O. H. Rohrbach, Charles Robertson, Fordyce Dooley, Dallas Winebrenner, George Redding and James Huff. Burial was in the New Zion cemetery. A large crowd attended the services.

Mr. Albin died at his home in Clarksburg Sept. 10 at the age of 87 years. He was born July 15, 1853, in Hampshire County, West Virginia, the son of the late George Washington and Mary Ann Albin.

When a small boy he came to Missouri with his parents, two brothers and three sisters and settled in Cooper County near Boonville.

He was married to Arbella Hurt Feb. 15, 1883. To this union were born five children, four sons and one daughter. Mrs. Albin preceded her husband in death 21 years ago, and the daughter, Mrs. Frank Williams, nine years ago. Three brothers and three sisters preceded him in death.

Surviving are the four sons, Otis A. of California, Mo., Jesse V. and George W. of Clarksburg and Charles of the home, seventeen grandchildren and seven great grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. Rachel Cobb of near Fortuna and Miss Mollie Albin of the home, and a large number of other relatives.

Mr. Albin was a member of the New Zion Cumberland Presbyterian church which he joined as a young man.
