

Mrs. Nannie Racy Dies at 78 Years

PILOT GROVE Mrs. Nannie Elizabeth Racy, 78, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ross Landon, near Blackwater, at 12:10 a. m., Jan. 24. Mrs. Racy had been ill only a few days.

Funeral services were conducted at the Peninsula Baptist Church at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The Rev. Roy Hidy of Pilot Grove conducted the rites. Burial was in Peninsula Cemetery. ✓

Mrs. Racy is survived by six children, Mrs. Leonard Stone of Boonville, John Racy, Blackwater, Marion Racy, Poplar Bluff, Charles Racy, Blackwater, Mrs. Landon and Mrs. C. W. Marcum of near Blackwater; two sisters, Mrs. Stella Wainscott of San Francisco, and Mrs. Tearle Woolledge of Pilot Grove. Her husband died Jan. 10, 1940. Mrs. Racy had lived in the Blackwater community all her life. The Hayes-Painter Funeral home of Pilot Grove had charge of funeral arrangements.