Miss Hurt Weds Dr. H. C. Harris

Miss Wilma Hurt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hurt, was married to Dr. H. C. Harris, son of Mrs. E. D. Harris of Berkeley, Calif., on August 9 at the Methodist church parsonage in Brookfield, Ill. The attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Newkirk of St. Louis.

The bride wore an eggshell white street length dress and Mrs. Newkirk wore a dress of a powder blue shade.

Dr. Harris was in charge of the surgical work of the army medical corps in Brookfield but is now in Washington, D. C., awaiting appointment.

Miss Bowman Bride of Leonard Carey

Miss Nellie Bowman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Bowman, 206 Hirth Ave., Columbia, became the bride of Leonard Carey of near Billingsville at 8:00 a. m. Saturday August 9, at the home of the Rev. W. C. Pitney, 1611 Amella St., Columbia. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Carey of Billingsville.

Mrs. Bowman, mother of the bride, gave her daughter in marriage, and Miss Anna Mae Schnell and John Strawn were the attendants.

Others present were: Mrs. Roy Rummans, Mrs. Raymond Schnell and Miss Dorothy Hathman.

The bride wore an orchid dress with white accessories and a corsage of rosebuds.

The couple spent several days at the Lake of the Ozarks and are now at home with the groom's parents near Billingsville.

Within a short time they expect to live at Boonville where Mr. Carey is employed as a mechanic at the Esser Motor Co.
