

Burrell Funeral Services Monday

George W. Burrell died at his home in Speed Saturday evening about 9 o'clock. He had been in failing health for several years and had been seriously ill for about a week.

Mr. Burrell was born Feb. 3, 1855, in Decatur county, Iowa, and came to Cooper county when a young man. He engaged in farming until his retirement several years ago. He was married on Oct. 12, 1882, to Miss Sarah Frances Dodson. To this union seven children were born.

Two daughters, Miss Gladys Burrell and Mrs. Thurman Carey; a step-daughter, Mrs. Gertrude Maxwell; and a son, Newton Burrell, preceded him in death.

He is survived by Mrs. Burrell and four daughters: Mrs. George (Mary) Bryan, Sedalla; Mrs. George (May) Watson, Mrs. Charles Tobitha Cary and Mrs. Leonard (Ann) Childs, all of Speed; seven grandchildren: Mrs. John Routt and Mrs. Harry Hein, both of Bunceton; Mrs. Charles Gerhardt, St. Louis; Mrs. Martin Draffen, Kansas City; Less Cary, Speed; and Aubra Carey, Boonville; and three great-grandchildren, Mary Alice Carey, Francis Radford Routt and Lols Hein.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carey of Speed, under the direction of Stegner-Koenig. The rites were conducted by the Rev. H. C. Clark of Boonville. Burial was in Walnut Grove cemetery.

Pallbearers were: Martin Draffen, Harry Hein, Aubra Carey, Les

Carey, John Routt and Walter Smith.

Mr. Burrell also was survived by one brother, Charles S. Burrell, of Speed. He was a former member of the old Concord Baptist church and the oldest member of the Men's Bible class of the Speed Union church.

Tavener-Smith Married Jan. 3

Miss Willeta Tavener, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Tavener, near Otterville, and Deane Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin D. Smith of Sedalla, were married at 7:30 o'clock Saturday evening, Jan. 3.

They were married by the Rev. W. P. Arnold, pastor of the East Sedalla Baptist Church, at his home. They were attended by the bride's sister, Mrs. Donald McFarland and Mr. McFarland. They will be at home in Sedalla after a short honeymoon.

Mrs. J. T. Jones, 62, Buried Monday

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Boonville Christian church for Mrs. J. T. (Edith) Jones, 62, who died suddenly at her home at 305 East Morgan Friday evening at 6 o'clock. Mrs. Jones had been in ill health for about two years.

The rites were conducted by the Rev. H. C. Clark and burial was at the Baptist cemetery at Pisgah.

Mrs. Jones had been a resident of Boonville since 1919. She was born near Armstrong, Mo., and was married June 20, 1900, to J. T. Jones.

The Jones moved to Cooper county shortly after their marriage and resided on a farm near Pisgah.

Mrs. Jones is survived by her husband and four children: Mrs. Joseph Ramsey, Chicago; D. L. Jones, Mrs. Robert Young and J. T. Jones, Jr., all of Kirkwood. She also is survived by four grandchildren.
