

Mrs. Mary Maddex 94, Died Last Week

Mrs. Mary F. Maddex, 94 years old, of Pilot Grove, died at her home there at 2:30 o'clock last Saturday. She had been bed fast for many years.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 at the Methodist church at Pilot Grove, with the Rev. William Ratje officiating. Burial will be in the cemetery at Pilot Grove. The Hays-Painter Funeral Home is in charge.

Mrs. Maddex was born May 24, 1848 and was married to Thomas Maddex in 1865. Mr. Maddex preceded her in death several years ago.

Of five sons born, three survive Mrs. Maddex. They are Ed. Maddex of Cannon City, Colo., John Maddex of Kansas City, and Louis Maddex of Pilot Grove.

Five half-sisters also survive.

Mrs. M. Hughs, Sr., New Franklin, Dies

NEW FRANKLIN—Mrs. Morrison Hughs, Sr., died Thursday morning, March 5, at 11:45 in a Kansas City hospital following a year's illness. Death was attributed to pneumonia.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the home of her son, Morrison Hughs, Jr., near Fayette, at 2 o'clock. Dr. C. B. Galatis of Fayette was in charge of the services and burial was in the Fayette cemetery.

Mrs. Hughs is survived by two sons and one daughter; Morrison Hughs, Jr., of the home, Gideon Herndon Hughs of Los Angeles, Calif., and Mrs. Pricilla Hughs-Smith of Aruba, Netherlands West Indies.

She also is survived by the following sisters, all residents of New Franklin: Mrs. W. C. McGavock, Mrs. R. T. Dunaway and Miss Suzanne Herndon; and by three grandchildren.

Mrs. Hughs was the former Miss Carrie Herndon. She was born one mile west of New Franklin on the old Herndon homestead and lived at the homestead until she was married. She resided in Howard county all her life.
