An Alton Brakeman Killed By Hummer

Warren Haley Stepped
From Freight Into Path
Of The Passenger Train

Warren W. Haley, of Slater, 20-year-old brakeman on the Alton railroad, was killed instantly this morning about 3.30 o'clock at Curryville, 7 miles west of Bowling Green, when he stepped from his train, second west bound No. 97, into the path of the east bound Hummer. The body was taken to Bowling Green and was brought from there this afternoon to Slater.

He leaves a wife, Mrs. Margaret Groves Haley; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Haley of Slater; a brother, Willard Haley of Miami, Fla., and two sisters, Mrs. Hortense Frazee and Miss Mildred of Kansas City.

Funeral arrangements have not been made.

Fred Allison Dies At Longwood

Funeral Services Held
This Afternoon at
Longwood Methodist Church

Fred Allison, for many years a Longwood resident, died Monday morning at 8:40 o'clock at Bothwell Hospital in Sedalia. He was a brother of Mrs. Fred Stockman of Malta Bend and brother-in-law of S. T. Gray, 768 South Odell.

Funeral services were held at 2:30 p. m. today at the Longwood Methodist Church. Burial was in the Longwood Cemetery.

Surviving Mr. Allison are his widow, Mollie Gray Allison, and four sisters, Mrs. Henry Jopling of Nelson, Mrs. Mary McDaniel of Polk, Nebr., Mrs. Stockman of Malta Bend and Mrs. Emma Marsh of Puyallup, Washington. Mr. Allison, 74 years old, was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Allison, who resided for many years on a farm northeast of Longwood.

Mr. Gray and daughter, Mrs. Norwood Read, and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Orear attended the funeral services.
