Funeral of Mrs. Susan Elliott

Funeral services for Mrs. Susan Hughes Elliott, 32, who passed away at her former home in Carrollton Wednesday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock, will be conducted at the Stanley funeral home, Carrollton, at 2:30 p. m. Friday by the Rev. Smith. Friends of the family will serve as pallbearers.

Survivors are her husband, Henry Elliott; a five-year old daughter, Patricia Sue Alexander; her father and mother, and a brother, J. T. Hughes, of Kansas City.

Mrs. Susan Hughes Elliott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hughes, was born one-half mile from Longwood May 3, 1910. She was married about sixteen years ago to Andrew Alexander, of Longwood, son of W. A. Alexander, of Longwood. The daughter, Patricia Sue, was born. Mr. Alexander passed away in 1938. Mrs. Alexander was married to Henry Elliott, of Carrollton, and the couple lived for several years in Sedalia, later moving to Carrollton. Mrs. Elliott was an active member of the Presbyterian church of that town.
