

d: 27 Aug 1943

J. A. Wyatt

Joseph Arthur Wyatt, son of John Andrew and Margaret Jane Wyatt, was born near Calhoun in Henry County, Mo., July 13, 1882, and died Aug. 27, 1943, aged sixty-one years, one month, thirteen days.

He united with the Mineral Creek Church of the Brethren early in life at Leeton, Mo.

On Nov. 26, 1902, he was married to Betty Lee Shoemaker at Sedalia, Mo. To this union was born one daughter, Margaret Ann Hainline of Skidmore, Mo.

Since early in life, he was very active in all church work, and in 1918 was elected to the ministry, in which capacity he served faithfully until death.

He served as pastor of the following churches, Kansas City, Mo., Denver, Colo., St. John, Kansas; Muscatine, Iowa, and North Bethel, Mound City, Mo.

Besides his wife and daughter, one grandson, his aged mother, one brother and three sisters survive.

Funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon at North Bethel church, conducted by Bro. X. L. Coppock. Interment was in the Mt. Hope cemetery at Mound City, Mo.

Plattsburg, Mo.

X. L. Coppock