

Boonville Daily News
31 Mar 1944

1/5

1/4

George Maddex Dies Suddenly

George Maddex, 70, was found dead at his home in Clifton City yesterday afternoon at 6. Death was due to heart failure.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete pending arrival of his children.

Services Saturday For Mrs. Kivett

Mrs. Ora Lee Carson Kivett, who was born on October 20, 1879, died yesterday morning at 12:50 a. m. at her home in Boonesboro. She was 64 years old.

On August 17, 1898 she was married to Obdiah Massie and to this union four sons were born. Mr. Massie and two sons preceded her in death.

On November 23, 1925 she was married to Omer Kivett. She is survived by her husband and two sons, Leonard Massie of Franklin and Charles Massie of the home; one granddaughter, Isabelle Massie; two sisters, Mrs. Belle Kivett of Boonesboro and Mrs. Bertha Amick of Franklin.

In her early life she united with the Boonesboro Christian church and remained a member of this church until her death.

Funeral services will be held at the Christian church in Boonesboro Saturday afternoon at 2:30 with the Rev. W. H. Allen of Fayette officiating.