Conduct Services For John E. Cartner

PRAIRIE HOME — Funeral services were held Thursday, Feb. 13, at the Assembly of God church in Jamestown for John Edward Cartner, who died in Oakland, Calif., Feb. 6, following a car accident in which an aunt, Mrs. Tom Cartner, and her brother, Bob Swanson, were also killed. The body arrived in Prairie Home, Thursday morning.

The Rev. Harry Lewis conducted the funeral rites, and burial was in Providence Cemetery.

Mr. Cartner was the son of the late James E. and Mattie L. Cartner, born April 4, 1907, near Speed in Cooper County. He spent the greater part of his life in Cooper and Monticau counties. About five years ago he went to Oakland, where he resided at the time of his death.

Mr. Cartner united with the Providence Baptist Church in childhood, later moving his membership to the Prairie Home Baptist Church.

He is survived by two brothers, Homer and James Cartner, three sisters, Mrs. Rufus Moore of California, Mo., Mrs. Lewis Roth of Omaha, Neb., and Mrs. Dorsey Hutchison of Jamestown; six nieces and three nephews; two uncles and several cousins. Mrs. Layton Adair is one of the nieces.

Pallbearers were Dorsey Hutchison, Rufus Moore, Herman and Carl Burkey, Layton Adair and Jim Cartner.

Services Are Held For Oliver Geiger

Funeral services for Oliver Geiger, who died as a result of injuries sustained when a tractor he was driving turned over were held Saturday afternoon.
