Ed L. Colin Dies Suddenly At Home

Ed L. Colin died suddenly at his home, 605 Seventh street, yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock. He had attended church services in the morning, and after eating his lunch complained of not feeling well, and collapsed.

Funeral services will be held at the Goodman and Boller Chapel, Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 conducted by the Rev. F. R. Chapman. Burial will be in Walnut Grove cemetery.

He is survived by his widow, and one daughter, Hazel.

Edmond L. Colin was born in Boonville, Jan. 13, 1881, and with the exception of one year when the family lived in Warrensburg, his entire life was spent in this community. His parents were Victor and Malissa Case Colin.

Mr. Colin was associated with his father in the barber business a number of years, and was employed at the Missouri Training School for a time. When his father died he took over the Colin barber shop, and has continued at the same location for the last 30 years.

He was married to Miss Nadine Willman April 4, 1911. He was a member of the Methodist Church.

The body will remain at the Goodman and Boller funeral parlors until time of the service.
