

1/1

McNeil

Miss Lula McNeil, Of Otterville, Dies

OTTERVILLE—Funeral services were held for Miss Lula Josephine McNeil, 74, at the home two miles north of Otterville, at 2:30 Sunday afternoon. Burial was in the I. O. O. F. cemetery at Otterville.

The Rev. W. P. Arnold of the East Sedalia Baptist Church conducted the rites. Pallbearers were P. L. Cole, Asa Bishop, T. R. Cranmer, J. A. Williams, and John Burford.

Miss McNeil died Thursday morning. She had been in failing health the past year. She was a daughter of the late Peter P. McNeil and Sarah Jane Elston McNeil and was a member of a family of 13 children, ten of whom preceded her in death. They are A. L. McNeil, Dr. George E. McNeil, Dr. Charles A. McNeil, Mrs. Lydia Kelby, Mrs. Jennie Evans, and Mary, Besse, Harlan, and John, who died in childhood.

She is survived by one sister, Miss Margaret McNeil, of the family home, and a number of nieces and nephews.

Miss McNeil was a member of the Otterville Baptist Church.

John T. Jones, 67, Dies Suddenly

John T. Jones, 67, died suddenly at his home at 305 East Morgan Street Wednesday morning. He had been a resident of Boonville for 30 years.

Funeral services will be conducted at the Pisgah Baptist Church at 2 p. m. today. Burial will be in the Pisgah Cemetery. The body will remain at the Goodman and Bolter funeral parlors until time for the rites.

Mr. Jones is survived by one daughter, Mrs. R. L. Young, Kirkwood; and two sons, David Lee Jones of Kirkwood, and J. T. Jones, Jr., of Columbia.

He was born in Prairie Home Nov. 14, 1880, the son of Mr. and Mrs. David L. Jones.

He was married to Miss Edith Nancy Lee in June, 1900. She died in January, 1943.

Jones

Joe Holman, 13, Dies Unexpectedly

CLIFTON CITY—Funeral services were held at the Olive Branch church near Beaman Apr. 22 for Joe L. Richard Holman, who died unexpectedly April 20.

The Rev. W. P. Arnold, pastor of the East Sedalia Baptist Church, assisted by the Rev. Elbert Cornelius, pastor of the Olive Branch Church, conducted the rites.

Pallbearers were Eugene Eads, Clay Blaylock, John Cranfield, and Ellwood Embree. Burial was in Salem cemetery.

Joe Holman was 13 years of age, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Holman, who reside on a farm located between Clifton City and Beaman. He became ill Tuesday evening and was sick only a few hours before he died. He was a pupil of the Olive Branch School which recently closed, and received the award at that time for perfect attendance.

Surviving are his parents and twin brothers, Lloyd and Floyd Holman.

Holman

Long Illness Fatal To Bruce R. Hill

Bruce Redman Hill, 78, died at his home at 922 Sixth Street at 10:40 p. m. Saturday after a long illness. He had been an invalid for 10 years, and had been seriously ill for several months.

Funeral services, in charge of the Stegner Funeral Home, were held at the Boonville Christian Church, of which he was a member, at 2 p. m. Tuesday. The Rev. G. S. Birkhead, pastor of the church, conducted the rites. Burial was in Walnut Grove Cemetery.

Mr. Hill is survived by his widow, the former Miss Lenora Inez Coadles, to whom he was married Feb. 3, 1897; two daughters, Mrs. George Hein, Franklin, and Mrs. R. L. Carr, Liberty; four sons, Lester C. Hill and Harold Hill, both of Boonville; Leroy Hill of Independence; and Trevor Hill of Carrollton; two sisters, Mrs. Lizzie Thomas, Boonesboro, and Mrs. Hattie Hilden, Sedalia; a brother, Porter Hill, Jefferson City; 25 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. One daughter preceded him in death.

Mr. Hill was born in Cooper County Sept. 13, 1869 and spent his early life in the Prairie Lick community where he engaged in farming. He moved to Boonville a number of years ago and was employed at the Phoenix-American Pipeworks until he became ill.

d: 24 Apr 1948

Hill