

1/7

Former Resident Dies In New York

Word has been received here of the death at Saratoga, N. Y., Tuesday of John Elliott, former Boonville resident. Mr. Elliott was in the investment business in New York. His home was at Charlottesville, Va.

He was the son of the late John S. and Laura Speed Elliott. Boonville's high school was named for his mother.

Funeral services and burial will be in Charlottesville.

Mr. Elliott, who was about 63 years old, attended Boonville High School, Kemper Military School and was graduated from the University of Virginia. After his graduation he coached the football team there for a time.

He is a nephew of Charles Elliott of Estil.

Mr. Elliott is survived by his widow, Mrs. Sidney Elliott, and four daughters: Martha Thorne, Sidney, Laura Speed and Jan. The latter three attended high school here.

1/8

Services Held For Fred C. Garrett

ROCHEPORT, Feb. 15—Funeral services for Fred C. Garrett, Columbia, former resident of this community, were held at Willett's Funeral Home, Columbia, Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mr. Garrett died at his home, U. S. 40 Hotel, Saturday. He had been ill the past three years.

The rites were conducted by the Rev. Gene Wetherell, and burial was in Memorial Park cemetery, Columbia. Pallbearers were Earl Douglas, Claude Pauley, Irvin

Jones, James Taylor, John Denham, and Clyde Funk.

Mr. Garrett was a retired farmer and stockman. He built and operated the U. S. 40 Hotel for many years.

Survivors include his widow, the former Miss Ora Kurtz; two sons, Kurtz and Eugene Garrett, both of Columbia; six grandchildren, Jack Howard Garrett with the armed forces in Korea, Donald Eugene Garrett, Great Lakes Naval Training center, Jo Ann, Ronald, Ronnie and Robert Eugene Garrett, jr. Other survivors are three sisters and two brothers, Mrs. Marvin Denham, Olathe, Colo., Mrs. Leona Gilliland, Buford, Ga., Mrs. Frank Hemmel, Jefferson City, Hinton, Garrett, Corpus Christi, Tex., and O. B. Garrett, Atlanta, Ga.