

C. F. Kuykendall Dies at Otterville

OTTERVILLE--Charles H. Kuykendall, 76, died at his home near here about 5 pm yesterday. He had been an invalid for three years.

Funeral services for the retired farmer will be held at the Otterville Presbyterian Church, of which he was a member, at 2 pm tomorrow. The Rev. Lewis F. Drake, California pastor, will conduct the rites. Burial will be at Smithton. ✓

Pallbearers will be E. A. W. Schupp, Clyde Wear, M. E. Finley, E. R. Haley, and Lewis Zumsteg, all of Otterville, and Homan Wear, Kansas City.

Hays and Painter have charge of arrangements.

Mr. Kuykendall is survived by three sons, Mylin and Raymond of Otterville, and John of the home, a daughter, Mrs. Robert G. Taylor, Bunceton; a brother, Frank Kuykendall, Deadwood, S. D., and five grandchildren.

He was born in Morgan County, March 20, 1876, the son of the late James F. and Mary E. Kuykendall. He was married to Miss Minnie Homan, July 14, 1904. She died Jan. 23, 1920. He was married to Miss Birdie Bartlett, October 23, 1923. She died Jan. 31, 1951.

[From: Boonville Daily News, 25 Feb 1953, 1/5. Mr. Kuykendall died 24 February 1953]

C. F. Kuykendall Dies At Otterville

OTTERVILLE--Charles H. Kuykendall, 76, died at his home near here about 5 p. m. yesterday. He had been an invalid for three years.

Funeral services for the retired farmer will be held at the Otterville Presbyterian Church, of which he was a member, at 2 p. m. tomorrow. The Rev. Lewis F. Drake, California pastor, will conduct the rites. Burial will be at Smithton.

Pallbearers will be E. A. W. Schupp, Clyde Wear, M. E. Finley, E. R. Haley and Lewis Zumsteg, all of Otterville, and Homan Wear, Kansas City.

Hays and Painter have charge of arrangements.

Mr. Kuykendall is survived by three sons, Mylin and Raymond of Otterville and John of the home; a daughter, Mrs. Robert G. Taylor, Bunceton; a brother, Frank Kuykendall, Deadwood, S. D., and five grandchildren.

He was born in Morgan County, March 20, 1876, the son of the late James F. and Mary E. Kuykendall. He was married to Miss Minnie Homan, July 14, 1904. She died Jan. 23, 1920. He was married to Miss Birdie Bartlett, Oct. 23, 1923. She died Jan. 31, 1951.