McNaughton Rites Are Held Today

John McNaughton died at St. Joseph Hospital at 12:30 p. m. Saturday, following an illness of seven weeks. Funeral services in charge of Goodman and Boller were held at the Evangelical and Reformed Church this afternoon.

The Rev. E. F. Abele conducted the rites. Burial was in the Walnut Grove Cemetery. Graveside services were held by Far West Lodge No. 4 I. O. O. F.

Mr. McNaughton was born in Cooper County, February 15, 1875, the son of Archie and Sarah Parrish McNaughton, and with the exception of a few years in Kansas City, spent all of his life in the community. For a number of years he had charge of the navigation signals on the Missouri River, retiring in 1950.

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Opal Ayers, of Los Angeles and Mrs. Ellen Golden, of Independence, Mo.; two sons, Arnold, who is a river pilot with the So-sony Vacuum Oil Company, and Lee of west of Boonville; three grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

His wife, the former Miss Sophia Dreeschel died Nov. 24, 1942. Three brothers and three sisters also preceded him in death. Mr. McNaughton was a member of the Evangelical church, the I.O.O.F. lodge, the Eagles, and the Knights of Pythias.

Pallbearers were Herb Blank, C. E. Buford, Calvin Huff, James Tucker, Rol Johnson, and Herman W. Meyer.

from Adams was an account Adams had given of Colin's ousting Senator McCarthy from his car in New York City. Carr said he was in the car and Cohn never "ejected" the senator.

On another point, Adams had testified that on Dec. 17 McCarthy reprimanded Carr because of alleged intervention by the subcommittee staff on behalf of Schine.

Carr insisted McCarthy at that time did not even discuss the Schine matter with him. He said McCarthy later brought up rumors that the press was going to make trouble about Schine's treatment at Ft. Dix. Carr later gave McCarthy a memo saying there had been no improper intervention.

Carpenter Funeral Rites Tomorrow

Robert A. Carpenter, former Bunceton resident, died at the Boonslick Boarding Home at 10:15 p. m. Sunday. Graveside services will be held at the Masonic Cemetery in Bunceton tomorrow at 2:30 p. m. The Rev. E. F. Abele will conduct the rites.

Mr. Carpenter was born in Cooper County April 16, 1869, the son of Robert L. and Percilia Robinson Carpenter. His only survivors are a number of nieces and nephews. The body will remain at the Goodman and Boller Funeral Home until time of the rites.
