

Mr. and Mrs. Leo J. Smith entertained with a lawn supper Sunday eve. in honor of their son, Jack D. Smith's 22nd birthday. Present were: Mr. and Mrs. Jack D. Smith, Miss Patti Sue Callis, Columbia; Lynn Wagenknecht, Smithton; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nichols and Firmin Huysentrupt. Jack leaves for the service July 20 in the U. S. Army.

About 75 people from Otterville attended the J-H rodeo at Camdenon Sunday.

H. D. Case, who is the only living member of the building committee of the Presbyterian Church had two hand railings erected at the south steps of the church recently.