Cambodia, Laos and Viet Nam, "to play their part in full independence and sovereignty, in the peaceful community of nations, and will enable the peoples of that area to determine their own future."

Smith told the conference the United States was not prepared to "join in a declaration by the conference such as is submitted." The United States, he said, is resolved to devote its efforts to the strengthening of peace "in accordance with the principles and purposes of the United Nations."

The final declaration of the conference was a three-page document, listing in 13 paragraphs the various agreements reached here for establishing peace.

Confidence was expressed in the declaration that a political settlement would be achieved in Viet Nam in the near future. The date of the general all Vietnamese elections was disclosed for the first time—July, 1956.

Smith Funeral Rites Tomorrow

Funeral services for Mrs. Clara Belle Smith will be held at St. Peter and Paul's Catholic Church at 8 a. m. tomorrow with the recitation of the Rosary at 8 o'clock tonight at the B. W. Thacher Funeral Home. Burial will be in Walnut Grove Cemetery.

The body will remain at the funeral home until time for the rites. Mrs. Smith died Monday night. The only survivor is a sister-in-law, Miss Bernice Smith of Boonville.

She was the daughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Varney of Boonville. Her husband, Elmer R. Smith, a pharmacist, died in 1927. She also was preceded in death by a sister, Nellie, and a brother, Harold.

O'Bryan Funeral Rites Tomorrow

Funeral services for John Dickerson O'Bryan will be held at the Franklin Foursquare Church at 2 p. m. tomorrow. Burial will be in Walnut Grove Cemetery here. The graveside rites will be conducted by the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars. The body will remain at the Goodman and Boller Funeral Home until time for the rites.

Mr. O'Bryan is survived by two brothers, Z. M. O'Bryan, Franklin, with whom he made his home, and William O'Bryan, Fulton; and a sister, Mrs. Eula Bennett, Sedalia. He was preceded in death by three brothers, Sam, Charles and Wilbert.

Mr. O'Bryan, a World War I veteran, died at the Wadsworth, Kas., veterans hospital early yesterday morning. He entered the hospital July 2.

He was born in Randolph County June 6, 1888, the son of W. M. F. and Kitty Ann Baron O'Bryan.

Blame Not Fixed In Traffic Death

A Moniteau County coroner's jury Monday found that Arthur H. Lenger, 37, Prairie Home, met death while riding in a car driven by James George, 44, Jamestown.

Dr. Kenyon Latham, coroner, said the jury did not fix blame for the mishap that occurred about 2:50 a. m. Sunday on a country road. Lenger was the passenger in a car that struck a bridge.

George, who sustained a fractured jaw and facial cuts, is a patient in St. Mary's Hospital, Jefferson City.
