

18 Dec 1956

1/8

James Haley Dies At Veterans Hospital

James Haley of Boonville, World War I veteran, died at Wadsworth Veterans hospital Monday night, following a long illness. He will be brought to Boonville for burial services to be held at Goodman and Boller Chapel Friday afternoon at 2 p. m. The Rev. Paul A. Lucky will officiate. Burial will be in the Walnut Grove cemetery.

Mr. Haley was born in Boonville January 28, 1892, the son of William and Ellen Seat Haley and spent most of his life in this community.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Grace Haley of Sedalia and 10 children. One daughter, Wandea, preceded him in death.