

Frank J. Narron - Died Saturday

Frank Jennings Narron, age 57, died Saturday evening about 7:40 p.m. at the home of his sister, Mrs. Roy Phillips, 253 West Summit, with whom he made his home. Mr. Narron's death was unexpected as he had worked that day at his usual duties at the Saline County Asphalt Company.

Funeral services will be held at 2:00 p.m. Tuesday at the Campbell-Lewis chapel conducted by Rev. Hugh Smith, pastor of Gill Memorial Chapel. Burial will be in Ridge Park Cemetery. The body is at the Campbell-Lewis-Funeral-Home where it will remain through the hour of services.

The deceased was born October 10, 1900 at Marshall, the son of Robert Wesley Narron and Carrie Laxson Narron, both of whom preceded him in death. Mr. Narron, who had never married, had spent his entire life in Marshall with the exception of one year in California. He had been employed as yard foreman at the Saline County Asphalt Company since 1938.

Mr. Narron is survived by the following sisters, Mrs. C. Roy (Dessie) Phillips, Mrs. Leo (Betty) Kuhn, Mrs. Fred W. (Edna) Boedeker, all of Marshall, Mrs. F. W. (Ann) Spradley of St. Louis, and a brother, George Narron, of Marshall; another brother, Robert F. Narron, preceded him in death. He is also survived by a number of nieces and nephews.
