

CALIFORNIA FUNERAL FOR R. M. RALSTIN

HENNESSEY—Word has been received that R. M. Ralstin, 68, formerly of Hennessey and Enid, died Sunday night in Los Angeles, Calif.

Ralstin was born in Missouri and moved to Oklahoma as a young man. He lived in the Enid and Hennessey areas, working as an electrician, until five years ago when he established a home in California.

Survivors include his wife, Frankie, of the home; three sisters, Mrs. Glen Smith, Magnolia, Ark., Mrs. Floyd Felt, San Antonio, Texas, and Mrs. Merritt Wheeler, Enid; three sons, Jack and Bob Ralstin, Los Angeles, and Jim, Oklahoma City; one daughter, Mrs. Gayle Will, Frederick; and 13 grandchildren.

Services in Los Angeles are scheduled for this afternoon, with interment in the Hennessey cemetery. Date of the Hennessey services is pending at the Cordry and Son funeral home.
