

Boonville Weekly Advertiser
27 Nov 1959
6/3 : Otterville

While using a corn picker in his corn field Friday morning, Thomas Nichols had the misfortune to get his clothing caught in the machine causing severe and painful injury to his side, which necessitated skin grafting, and, in trying to free himself from the machine, his right hand got caught severing the little finger. It was necessary to amputate the finger next to it.