

Sedalia Democrat
23 Feb 1960

2/1

2/2

Harvey Alston

Harvey Alston, 2526 Woodland, Kansas City, brother-in-law of Delbert Holmes; 605 West Pettis, died at the University of Kansas Medical Center Monday.

He is survived by: His wife, Violet Holmes Alston, of the home; and five daughters.

Funeral services are incomplete.

Joseph Walker Woolery

Joseph Walker Woolery, 62, died Monday afternoon at his home in Pilot Grove.

He was born May 26, 1877, in Pilot Grove, and was married Sept. 4, 1935, to Edna Ricey in Otterville. He was a member of the Wesley Chapel Methodist Church.

Survivors are: His wife, Mrs. Edna Woolery, of the home; one son, Joseph Woolery, Jr., Pilot Grove; one sister, Mrs. Phillips; three grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Funeral service will be at 2:00 p.m. Thursday at the Wesley Chapel Church, with the Rev. E. R. Pheffer officiating.

The body will be at the Hayes-Palmer Funeral Chapel until one hour before the service.

Burial will be in Wesley Chapel Cemetery.

Pallbearers will be Syl Mueller, Jake Brownfield, Stanley Schlotzhauer, George Richerson, Walter Stegner and John Heinrich, Jr.

Mrs. Marie Homan Jaeger

Mrs. Marie Homan Jaeger died unexpectedly at the home of her brother, Homer Homan, 2400 Dennis Road, at 4:15 p.m. Monday, Feb. 22. Death was due to a heart attack.

She was born in Morgan County Dec. 25, 1895, the daughter of William G. and Margaret Beynon Homan. On April 20, 1919, she married Edward W. Jaeger.

She was a member of the Stony Point Presbyterian Church, later transferring to the Smithton Methodist Church, in which she was an active member and a lifetime member of the WSCS.

Surviving are: Her husband, Edward W. Jaeger; a son, Homer W. Jaeger; three grandchildren; one brother, Homer R. Homan, Sedalia; and one sister, Mrs. Delbert Melendy, Kansas City.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday at the Methodist Church in Smithton.

Burial will be in the Smithton Cemetery. The body will be at the Neumeier Funeral Home in Smithton.

Mr Woolery d: 22 Feb 1960